Who Are Urging the Higher Taxes?

Every time a new scheme to spend the city's money is advanced, from nickel plating the boulevards to buying a gold shirt for the Goddess of Liberty, the city papers publish "opinions" of many of our "best people," endorsing the movement and incidentally advocating an additional tax levy. Investigation shows that most of these "best people" reside in Oak Park, Evanston, the North Shore towns, or some of the suburbs that enjoy all of the city advantages but pay none of the city taxes. It is very easy to spend some one else's money and pose as an advanced citizen, but these four flushers, largely responsible for many of our extravagant outlays never pay a penny for them, but are loudest in advocating them. The people have an opportunity at the coming city election to choose an economical sensible administration and city council, and it is up to them to do their full duty and wipe out the spoils system and extravagances.

Passing the Hat Too Often

At the present time in Englewood there is no less than six very worthy institutions asking donations or contributions from the public. This does not include the church collections for special funds, but only those of a general nature. In the meantime the county treasurer is reminding us that our taxes must be paid by May 1, and he collector of internal revenue wants any little bit we may have over a bare living. The Fifth Liberty Loan bond sale will begin in a few weeks, and yet many are expected to contribute to each and every one of these funds. Of course it is easy for us rich (?) newspaper men, but how hard it must be for the plumbers, bankers and other poor fellows.

Charles O'Connor, Jr., after serving eight months in a southern camp has been mustered out and is at home at 5922 Peoria St.

The Altar and Rosary Society of St. Brendan's Church will give an entertainment tonight at Neighborhood Hall, 67th and May Sts.

John Angsten who sold his property at the southwest corner of 64th and Halsted Sts., has gone to St. Petersburg, Florida, for the winter.

Miss Bertha Sandack who has been confined to her home at 6357 Sangamon St. by severe illness, is recovering and able to be about.

Mr. Jacobs of the "Hamilton," 64th and Halstel Sts., has returned from an extended trip to New York and the East where he consulted the market for the latest spring styles and made his purchases for the coming season.

The nomination of Scott M. Hogan in the 31st Ward gives the "west of Halsted St." people a chance to be represented in the city council, but it will take some campaign to unseat as good a man as Alderman Long.

Increasing business has caused the Englewood Packing Co. at 6845 Halsted St. to enlarge their store and refrigerator capacity to meet the demands of their trade. Twenty salesmen are kept busy on Saturdays, and they sell more meat than half the town besides.

It is gratifying to note that many of the vacant business rooms all through this territory are being rented. The "boys" coming home from the war means a lively increase in business in all lines.

If the wreckers soon do not get to work on the old building at the southwest corner of 63rd St. and Union Ave., the malicious boys will be ahead of them in the work as each night some new depredation is commited. The report is that another theater i soon to be erected on the site.

Earl Johnson proves the value of his technical school education by building a wonderful bicycle with full rigged front and tail electric lights, a covered hood over the handle bars and seat behind the rider handsomely upholstered. It is a question for whom the rear seat is being made so cozy, but almost anyone would enjoy a ride on the beautiful machine which is driven by a gasoline engine attached to the rear wheel.

Mark Express Packages Correctly

Mr. Hotchkiss, the genial Railways Express Agent, called our attention to the fact that nearly one-half the packages the soldier and sailor boys sent "home" from the cantonements were never delivered because they were not marked. This applies to a great amount of other shipments and the incredible number of 250,000 packages failed of delivery last year because the senders had forgotten or improperly marked them. A system of education along these lines is now in progress, and the casual shipper will do well to make inquiries at the home office and learn how and where to mark his casual shipment.

INCOME TAX IS TRULY POPULAR.

"The payment of income taxes takes on a new significance, which should be understood by every citizen The taxation system of this country is truly popular, of the people, by the people and for the people Every citizen is liable to tax, and the amount of the tax is graduated according to the success and fortune attained by each individual in availing himself of the opportunities created and preserved by our free institutions. The method and degree of the tax is determined by no favored class, but by the representatives of the people. The proceeds of the tax should be regarded as a national investment"—Daniel C. Roper, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Bell System

Sometimes a telephone subscriber will call a number and if he does not get an almost instantaneous response, will hang up the receiver and try again. Had he waited a few seconds longer, the call might have been answered.

Hanging up the receiver prematurely means that your time and the time and work of the operator have been wasted. If the called party answers after you have abandoned the call, the operator must come on the line and explain, "Party has gone; excuse it, please."

Please allow the person you are calling a reasonable time in which to answer before abandoning your call.

Time Fiddling.

There is a lot of time fiddled away in this world, one way and another, by good people who have the best of intentions. We will venture to assert, along this line, that more time is fiddled away by folks who peck at languages than in any other manner. Almost everybody is seized at some stage in his life with a desire to add another tongue to his own, but it usually results in nothing more than time wasted.

Watch for Airquakes.

An English astronomer of prominence has advanced the theory that there are airquakes, entirely independent of earthquakes, that are caused by the explosion of meteors in the atmosphere.

The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgage and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.
Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

SEVERE PENALTIES IF YOU DELAY BEYOND MARCH 15

With the due date for Income Taxes only a few weeks away, the collection of this far-reaching tax on 1918 incomes has started off with a bang. Everybody is figuring income tax.

Payments and sworn statements of income must reach Internal Revenue offices on or before March 15, and there are severe penalties for delinquency.

Residents of Illinois should file their returns and pay taxes to the nearest of the following Collectors of Internal Revenue: Julius P. Smietanka, Chicago; Edward D. Stalbe, Peoria, John L. Pickering, Springfield; John M. Rapp, East St. Louis.

"Pay your Income Tax by March 15," is the slogan of the Internal Revenue Bureau, which has sent every available officer into the field to help the public to understand the requirements and to prepare the returns.

Who Must Make Return.

It is estimated that many thousands of single and married persons in this section of the United States who have never before made an annual returns are required to do so this year.

Income tax returns must be made between now and March 15 by persons who come under the following classifications:

Any unmarried person whose 1918 net income was $1,000 or over. Widows and widowers, divorcees and married persons who are living apart from their husbands or wives, are for the purposes of the Income Tax classed as unmarried.

Any married person living with wife or husband whose 1918 net income was $2,000 or over. The income of both husband and wife must be considered, together with that of minor children, if any.

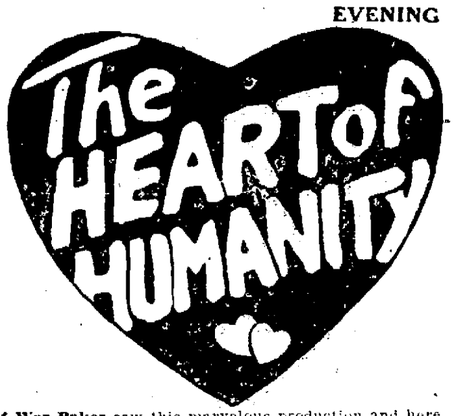
EVENING



Secretary of War Baker saw this marvelous production and here is what he said—"It is a valuable picture and brings to us in a forceful manner the sacrifices which were made both at the front and at the fireside to free the world and place love in its rightful place. The picture touched me deeply and I hope that it will help in bringing about some sort of 'League of Nations' which will chain the hyena gone made with lust and ambition."
A story of love that passeth all understanding—a great romantic picture that you'll never forget. It ranks as one of the greatest emotional pictures ever produced.

The management of the Harvard Theatre has secured for exclusive advance showing in Englewood, an array of the seasons best photo productions now being released, including Mabel Normand in "Mickey." Cecil B. DeMilles "Don't Change Your Husband," D. W. Griffiths in his very latest production "Romance of Happy Valley," also the million dollar spectacle "Salome" with Theda Bara, and the great Nazimova in her latest play "Out of the Fog."

Special two days only! Friday and Saturday, February 28th and March 1st. Matinee and evening. The picture that everybody is talking about. "The Heart of Humanity," the World's greatest picture. The photoplay that will live forever. Unanimously proclaimed as the peer of all Screen productions. Secretary of War Baker saw this marvellous production and here is what he said: "It is a valuable picture, and brings to us in a forceful manner the sacrifices which were made both at the front and at the fireside to free the world and place love in its rightful place. The picture touched me deeply and I hope that it will help in bringing about some sort of 'League of Nations' which will chain the hyena gone mad with lust and ambition." A story of love that passeth all understanding—a great romantic picture that you'll never forget. It ranks as one of the greatest emotional pictures ever produced. Come early and bring the whole family to see it.

Sunday, March 2nd. Continuous from 2 to 11. Charming Dorothy Gish in a humorous play "Boots." Her latest and best screen appearance. A splendid timely photoplay in which the bolshevist menace, now treatening civilization, is exposed. Lots of people keep money in their boots but who ever thought that romance, thrills and intrigue could be found in them. See what Dorothy Gish's boots hold. It's the same funny Dorothy Gish who played in "Hearts of the World," "Battling Jane" and "The Hope Chest." 2-act scream comedy and Pathe News. Matinee only—"The Lure of the Circus."

Monday, March 3rd. Enid Bennett in "Happy Though Married." The wife in this story discovers in her newly married husband's trunk the picture of a Spanish girl. She imagines this girl to have been some spectacular dancing girl beneath whose feet her husband had thrown his heart. That man is a ready victim to the green-eyed monster is brought out by the action of the story and the conclusion is that literary treatises on how to manage wives and husbands all must have been written by bachelors and old maids.

Theda Bara as "Salome" at the "Harvard Beautiful," Wednesday and Thursday, March 5th and 6th

Tuesday, March 4th. Constance Talmadge in "Romance and Arabella." Arabella is a very young widow and is already considering the possibilities of a second marriage. She is beloved by Bill, a boy she has known all her life, but she wants romance, thrills and mystery in her next alliance and laughs at Aunt Effie's suggestion that Bill would make an ideal husband. See the picture and see what she does.

Wednesday and Thursday, March 5th and 6th. Theda Bara in "Salome." Colossal! Compelling! Conquering! The Python of Paletsine. Sinuous, sleek, seductive, she twined herself about strong men and crushed them, heart, soul and body. "Salome," as impersonated by Theda Bara, is probably the most sinister yet fascinating figure from the blood-stained pages of Biblical history that has ever been thrown on the screen. "Salome" was a child of nature, reared in the most profligate royal court of her age, and her maiden heart reached out for John the Baptist, the only good man she had ever met. Had John been less the grim scourage of sinners and more the helper and healer—had he prayed for her and not denounced her—this wild child might have been saved for the good of her people. Instead, she brought the Baptist to his death and died herself under the spiked shields of Roman soldiers.

E. A. R. THEATRE

The E. A. R., the real neighborhood picture house, the one that caters almost exclusively to the home element of the 69th St. and Hamilton Park neighborhood, and that books its pictures with the sole end in view of pleasing their kind patrons, has some unusual bookings for the coming week. Every week is a good one at the E. A. R., but the specials for this week are deserving of mention.

Saturday, March 1st. Hale Hamilton in "$5,000 An Hour." A romance of frenzied finance where youth and love defeat a gang of clever business crooks. "Lure of the Circus," also Allied War Review.

Sunday, March 2nd. Anita Stewart in "Virtuous Wives." What is hubby's chief fault? Does he forget to kiss you when he leaves in the morning? Does he neglect to tell you occasionally that he still loves you? Does he fail to compliment you on a made-over hat or dress? Has he reached the point of just taking you for granted—like his breakfast or the monthly bills? Andrew Forrester commits a greater domestic crime than any of these in "Virtuous Wives" with Anita Stewart. A wonderful combination—a story of real married life in New York—a beautiful star and a revelation for husbands. Matinee only, Pearl White in "The Lightning Raider."

Tuesday, March 4th. Bryant Washburn in "Venus in the East." Billy West in "A Rolling Stone," also Ford Weekly. He might as well have laden Venus' marble form with jewels and fine furs! The woman he courted certainly had a heart like an iceberg! But his eyes suddenly opened and he saw a simple, little girl from "God's Country," his own beloved West. There's where the complications come in! "Venus" wouldn't let go! The complications are "pippins." Come Tuesday to see this famous Saturday Evening Post story and what they're all about.

Wednesday, March 5th. Mae Marsh in "The Bondage of Barbara." Pathe Latest News, also "Never Too Old" Sennett comedy. How would you like to become a boy to save the family honor? Would you take the big chance—and do the things that boys do to prove the innocence of a loved one under sentence for a mysterious bank robbery? Maybe you would and maybe you wouldn't! But until you see Mae Marsh in "The Bondage of Barbara" you really are not qualified to make your decision.

"The Bondage of Barbara" tells the story of a girl who fights hard when love is at stake; a story that will make your heart beat faster and your body pulsate with indignation over the trials and difficulties thrown into the path of a slip of a girl.

Thursday, March 6th. Emmy Wehlen in "His Bonded Wife." The story of a beautiful and wealthy New York girl who wishes to be loved for herself and not for her wealth. For this reason she leaves home and goes to live in an unpretentious way by herself. Her many adventures—both amusing and dramatic—are cleverly shown by Miss Wehlen and her brilliant supporting company. How she meets and falls in love with a young architect, and the many complications which arise through her harmless deception, are incidents which will be appreciated by everyone. Strand comedy and Burton Holmes Travelogue.

Friday and Saturday, March 7th and 8th. "The Heart of Humanity." The picture that will live forever. Allan Holubar's super-production featuring Dorothy Phillips. The biggest production in ten years. The picture you'll never forget—stupendous in theme. A veritable revelation of unending wonders. A romance of the great war, a story of the love that passeth all understanding. Read the story in another column.

Sunday, March 9th. Dustin Farnum in "A Man In the Open."

Coming—Cecil B. De Mille's production "Don't Change Your Husband."

See "Virtuous Wives" at the "E. A. R." Sunday, March 2nd

Mondays to Be Bargain Days

Many of the merchants on 63rd St. have signed an agreement to make every Monday a veritable "bargain day," and will make large window displays in which they will offer special inducements for home shoppers to buy of our home merchants. We hope our readers will help out on this campaign and visit the stores that make good displays and offer bargains. Our merchants carry as good if not better goods than are usually carried in the down town stores, and can and will sell at more reasonable prices as their expenses are very much less. All they ask is that our people give them an opportunity of proving this fact, and we hope to see an appreciative number of buyers viewing the windows next Monday. Give them a trial at any rate.

[illegible] Are you [illegible] want to know how to win [illegible] her love for romance? [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] ... opening of hostilities comes on the wedding day of John and Nanette. John and four other sons enlist for service with the Canadian forces. One after another all but John are killed, [illegible] comes into the home of the Widow Patricia. Then Nanette's child comes to soften the grief of the mother and the anxiety of the wife. [illegible], the fifth son of the widow en-[illegible].

John's letters home tell of the sufferings endured by French and Belgian children in the war and Nanette finally determines to go to their aid. She enlists in the Red Cross and is assigned to duty in a convent in France. She sees her husband, now an aviator, but soon afterward he is brought down inside the German lines and is made a prisoner.

In the meantime Oscar Strang becomes an officer in the German army. In the advance on Paris the Germans take the convent in which Nanette is on duty, and Strang meets Nanette again. He attacks her and a terrific fight develops. She succeeds finally in escaping to another room and bars the door.

Meanwhile John escapes from the German war prison, and, in the uniform of a German soldier whom he has killed, starts for the convent. Nanette, safe for the time being behind a barred door, stands in horror as Strang pounds on the door outside. She grasps a knife, determined to plunge it into her bosom if the door yields.

John, after killing two German guards, reaches the room in which Strang is struggling to open the door. There is a fight and he kills Strang. Then he forces open the door, to find that his wife has stabbed herself. She does not die, however, and recovers after several weeks in a hospital.

Nanette is persuaded to go back home, which she does after John urges that their boy now needs her. There is a happy reunion in the little Canadian village between mother and child, but their joy becomes still greater when John, one day after peace is signed, walks back to the arms of his mother, wife and child.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The growing popularity of the Marlowe Hippodrome is a direct result of the excellent shows invariably put on at that house. "Doc" White is essentially a real showman. He knows what the public wants and immediately sets out to get it and to get the best in that line. His bill each day is an improvement over the haphazard style of managers who book any old thing just to fill the time or the convenience of the stage settings. Not only does the Marlowe excell in pictures, but their vaudeville and special stunts are the talk of the town and the profession. It is considered an honor to be booked at the Marlowe as the well known reputation of the house means that those booked are leaders in their line. Their Friday, Saturday and Sunday all-star vaudeville shows are models in their way and their song and dance revues are very entertaining and interesting. The Marlowe is always well ventilated and comfortable and is the home house of the central part of Englewood. The large part of their matinee audiences of ladies and children speaks volumes in praise of the way it is conducted. Go to the Marlowe at any time and you will be entertained pleasantly.

Mabel Normand as "Mickey" at "Marlowe," Wednesday and Thursday, March 5th and 6th

Coming Wednesday and Thursday, March 5th and 6th. In addition to our regular show. Mack Sennett presents his famous $25,000 production "Mickey" featuring Mabel Normand. The picture you will never forget.

As a special for Thursday the Marlowe management has arranged in conjunction with "Mickey" to have six real live "Mickey's" who will sing during the presentation of the play. This is a distinct novelty and will be captivating. Don't miss it, also our big cabaret revue, and all for the same price, the first time ever presented for 17c and 11c including the war tax.

There are wistful and pathetic touches in "Mickey," as well as humor laid in with delicacy and a sure touch. The story of "Mickey" is vivid with action, much of which is laid in that wonderful twilight zone of comedy where half the laughs are wet with tears.

Mickey is a sweet, wholesome, mischievous little girl, raised by her foster father, an old miner, and her foster mother, a wise old Indian squaw, in the mountain country far away from the glamour and chill of the city.

Also every Wednesday "Houdini" in "The Master Mystery."

Special attraction Saturday and Sunday, March 1st and 2nd. Big girl show. Revue De Luxe. Ten people. Other big acts well worth waiting for.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

Forget It

If you see a tall fellow ahead of the crowd,
A leader of men, marching fearless and proud,
And you know of a tale, whose mere telling aloud
Would cause his proud head to in anguish be bowed,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a skeleton hidden away
In a closet, and guarded, and kept from the day
In the dark, and whose showing, whose sudden display,
Would cause grief and sorrow and lifelong dismay,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a thing that will darken the joy
Of a man or a woman, a girl or a boy,
That will wipe out a smile, or the least way annoy
A fellow, or cause any gladness to cloy,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

It's pretty tough when the movers want to charge more for moving than your old truck is worth—answer, don't move.

Some woman with a "poison pen" wrote us a very nasty letter abusing us for not publishing a bit of salacious news she had sent in, and wound up by saying that we did not publish it because she did not belong to the same church as ourselves. She's sure right, we pretend to decency.

Casey says a Ford chasing a Ford tells the time in Ireland—"Tin afther tin."

The usual number are still telling how it all happened Tuesday.

When cabbages were scarce and high a few years ago, a German friend of mine told me "Naw, I tidn't poot oop no sauer kraut this year, it vas too high, aber I yust put oop a few barrells in case of sickness in the fambly." Just read this "booze" and you will hit some of our good people square between the eyes.

After July 1st, the answer to the query "What'll you have?" will be "Oh, a pair of sox or a necktie," but what will the barkeep have?—a fit.

The Government is perpetrating a joke in sending warnings to all newspapers of a counterfeit $20 bill. Hully chee! They must know we never see such curiosities.

I was only told this one. A customer at Madigan's asked one of the pretty clerks, "Are you sure these corsets are unbreakable?" "Oh, yes, ma'am," was her answer, "I've worn a pair for a year, and they're not broken yet, and—I'm engaged, too."

Speaking of the safe way to keep a dog in the city, Casey advised a friend: "Furst go to the city haal and git a license fer him, thin buy a muzzle and a collar, thin take him into the basement and shoot him, and ye may be safe, utherwise not, see?"

Casey visited the barber yesterday, and was met with the usual query: "Shall I take a little off the ends of your hair?" "Will, yis, Oi belave Oi would," said Casey, sarcastically, "Unliss ye could take a little aff the middle ond jine the inds togither again."

A little lad from the city made his first trip to the country last summer, and for the first time saw a cow milked. The farmer gave him a drink of the fresh milk and asked him how he liked it. "Chee, but it's good," said the boy, "don't I wish that our milk man kept a cow."

A knowing friend of mine while coming out from the city on a Wentworth Ave. car last evening, in a fit of abstraction offered a second nickel to the conductor after he had paid him once. The conductor looked at him a moment and said, "You paid your fare before." "I know it," said my friend, "But this nickel is for the company." That conductor was so astonished he forgot to be impudent to his passengers all the trip.

Of all the love affairs in the world, none can surpass the true love of a big boy for his mother. It is a true love and noble, honorable in the highest degree to both. I do not mean merely a dutiful affection; I mean a love which makes a boy gallant and courteous to his mother, saying to everyone plainly that he is fairly in love with her. I never yet knew a boy to "turn out" bad who began by falling in love with his mother.

A tourist happened to meet the usual "oldest inhabitant" of a village. In the course of conversation he asked the ancient how old he was. "I be just a hundred," was the reply. "Well, I doubt if you'll see another hundred years," said the tourist, trying to make conversation. "I don't know so much about that, maister," was the hopeful response. "I be stronger now than when I started on my first hundred."

The Art Department Will Meet Monday Morning, March 3rd

Prof. Ralph Dennis Will Speak On "Russia In Revolution" In the Afternoon

The Music Department held a very interesting morning meeting on Monday, February 24th.

Miss Henriette Weber, who is giving a series of lectures on Music in distant lands, gave her third one on this morning and had as her assistant, Miss Lotta Chatroop, soprano, who sang a number of arias as illustrations to the talk.

Miss Weber's subject was "Music of Italy" and she told us that Italian music was principally opera and that very little vocal, orchestral or chamber music is accredited to that country. The morning was one of pleasure.

Previous to the program, Mrs. Charles Shearman gave a report of current musical events. Mrs. Albert J. Fisher reported on Civic Music.

In the afternoon a very large attendance was present. The saluting of the flag and the singing of My Country 'Tis of Thee was preceded by the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. E. Roy Haynes.

Mrs. Charles S. Clark, president, introduced Mrs. Herbert Butler of the National Council of Defense who spoke on War Saving Stamps.

The Social Service Committee are asking for helpers for the following kinds of volunteer work.

To teach English to foreign women at Davis Sq. on Fridays.

To teach home cooking to foreign women at Davis Sq. on Fridays.

To work with children under six years of age at Davis Sq. on Fridays, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M.

The following list of articles is desired by this committee for the purpose of aiding the girls at the Geneva Home: Suit cases, hair brushes, combs, clothes brushes, underwear, new or old skirts, aprons, house dresses, laces and ribbons, sewing kits, and in fact everything a girl needs from 14 to 18 years.

View day for the Art Department has been changed from February 18th to March 4th, Tuesday of next week.

By way of diversion and amusement the club presented nine of its members in a three act comedy, "Your Sanity," written and produced under the efficient direction of Frederick Bruegger. The first presentation of the play was given on this afternoon and was most successful.

The following ladies participated in the play: Mary Lauwren Reed, Bertha McCracken Wielenberg, Emma Lorreaux Barbee, Anna Kepler Shearman, Wilhelmina Vail, Catherine Rallen, Loula Jay Samson, Laura Hudson Banister and Josephine Reilly Nims.

Each part had been carefully selected and each one played her part in a most convincing and clever manner. The story was definite and judging from the applause at various intervals and by the seeming interest of the assembly, it proved itself to be a comedy which if acted as splendidly elsewhere as it was on Monday, it will surely be much in demand throughout the country, in fact the play is booked for a production in the East within the next six months. The stage settings on this afternoon, showed much forethought in preparation as every detail to make it appear most natural to the eye was evidenced. The Chairman of Club Dramatics is Mrs. Laura H. Banister and of Club Properties, Mrs. Laura Wilcox Williams.

Next Monday morning Elizabeth Day McCormick will talk on needlecraft. In the afternoon Prof. Ralph Dennis, head of the Oratory Department of the Northwestern University will speak on "Russia In Revolution."

Englewood Sunday Evening Club

Another treat awaits the audience at the Englewood Sunday Evening Club March 2. Dr. Hugh Black, one of the most noted of Scotch ministers who came to America from Edinburgh five years ago, and who had been assistant to Dr. Henry White in Free St. George's where his pastorate had a pronounced influence in guiding thought in that intellectual community, is now pastor of the First Congregational Church of Montclair, N. J., one of the largest and most influential Congregational churches in the United States.

Dr. Black is world famous as an author as well as a lecturer and he has been able to accept but few of the many invitations to deliver his lectures in this country. His subject next Sunday evening will be "Patriotism, True and False," and is his latest and best effort. He is a man of exceptional talents and attainments of qualities of mind and heart such as few possess—a man who cannot be heard in a community without influencing that community to nobler ideals, to better work and to a higher life.

Glenwood Preble in addition to the choir program, has secured the services of that sweetest of sopranos, Hazel Silver, whom the club audiences have heard before.

Community Club of Englewood

The March meeting of the Community Club of Englewood will be a social affair.

On Tuesday, March 11th, the members will meet at the home of Mrs. M. L. Potter, 451 60th St., leaving promptly at 12 o'clock to take the 59th St. car to the Chicago University.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 at Ida Noyes Hall, after which a conducted tour through the group of University buildings will be enjoyed.

A large attendance is desired as the trip will be very instructive and profitable. The members are privileged to bring guests.

The Feb. 25th meeting was a most delightful one. A splendid program had been arranged by our very able chairman, Mrs. A. W. Axtell, on ways and means to meet the high cost of living. Many useful and desirable suggestions were given by the members and appreciated by all. It should be made an annual day in our program.

Dr. White on "The League of Nations"

The above heading is enough to fill the capacious auditorium of the People's Liberal Church next Sunday as it did last Sunday morning. The learned doctor will deliver his second sermon on the same subject and after the sermon there will be a free-for-all discussion, and the importance of this timely topic of the day brings forth many ideas differing from that of the speaker of the occasion. It is worth while and you are invited to join in. In the evening Dr. White will deliver his illustrated lecture on "China the Wonderful," which is probably one of the most interesting subjects Dr. White speaks on. The wonders and antiquities of the ancient kingdom, which was old in civilization when the world was young is a subject of unparalled interest especially when treated of by so intellectual and experienced a traveler and thinker as Dr. White. Don't miss the service next Sunday.

Fortnightly Club

The Fortnightly of Englewood will meet on Tuesday, March 4th, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Young, 442 Normal Parkway. Mr. Frank Schoell of the University of Chicago will be the speaker.

Lewis-Champlin Parent-Teachers Association

The next meeting of the Lewis-Champlin Parent-Teachers Association will be held in the assembly hall of the school Tuesday, March 4th, at 2:30 o'clock. The entertainment will be furnished by Room 202. It will consist of two playlets. One is a dramatization of "The Endless Tale." The other is an interpretation of the "Story of Sir Cleges and the Christmas Cherries." A number of Kindly Rhymes will also be recited. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

Civic Music Concerts

The last concert in the Hamilton Park series is announced for Sunday afternoon, March 2nd, at 3:15 o'clock. The program will be given by the Civic Music Choral Club of Hamilton Park assisted by Anna Burmeister, soprano. Dr. William Carver Williams, director; Stanley Seder, at the piano.
